Your Punctuality Honours God

Reaching For The Heavens

To the untrained, scaling the vertical wall face of a steep towering mountain seems like an arduous and impossible task. Sometimes, just the fleeting thought of it is an immediate put-off that quickly gives way to other more pressing priorities.

Inviting a pre-believer to church or sharing God's goodness to a skeptical world can sometimes feel the same way. We are rightly earthly beings after all, with our human struggles and justifiable fears of rejection. Besides, most of us aren't extroverts like....Pastor Apelles...who can make jokes....and dance.... in front of an open audience...andand... The list of reasons can spiral infinitely on in our minds... Till Kingdom Come.

Fortunately for us, Isaiah 55:8-9 says that: "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways," declares the Lord. "As the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts."

We can take comfort in the truth that God's methods and thoughts far surpass those of our own. Not just a little higher, but far higher than the tallest mountain and as high as the 'heavens are higher than the earth'. We therefore have no need to latch on to human logic or worry about the whens or hows of outreach. Moreover, any human effort to reach the heavens will simply culminate in a half-completed tower of Babel.

But through fervent, consistent prayer and simply being in God's presence, you and I are given the means to draw from his inexhaustible well of wisdom and courage. We train ourselves to be alert for the opportunities He opens up for us, and constantly practice listening to His promptings to move into action.

Prayer points on Alpha:

- That we will make conscious effort to spend time with the Lord - our Lord.
- That we learn to listen to and obey God's voice first instead of depending on our own strengths, intellect and abilities, or the voice of man.
- To reach out to prebelievers with godly courage, a sound mind and a Christ-like love.

May the Lord's Will Be Done!

Scripture:

“let the wise listen and add to their learning, and let the discerning get guidance for understanding proverbs and parables, the sayings and riddles of the wise. The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge, but fools despise wisdom and instruction.”

- Proverbs 1:6-7

Observation:

Wisdom is more than knowledge; it is the ability to discern and judge which aspects of that knowledge are true, right, lasting, and applicable to your life. It's the ability to apply that knowledge to the greater scheme of life. It's also deeper; knowing the meaning or reason; about knowing why something is, and what it means to your life.

Application:

It is not enough for me to just build up my knowledge in the material things but I also have to build up my wisdom and to listen more to the people God has placed in my life to guide me and to not get “puffed up” on my knowledge and think myself smarter than all my friends and teachers because I think I am more knowledgeable than them. This way I will be able to combine my knowledge and gain wisdom in order to gain insight and this way get closer to God.

Prayer:

Dear Lord Jesus, I pray that I will be able to gain the wisdom to heed the counsel of my friends, teachers and those you have placed in my life and that I will never grow proud and turn a deaf ear to their counsel and forget that you are the Source of all knowledge, in the name of Jesus I ask and I pray. Amen.
