Be An “Andrew”!

We're all gearing up for the launch of Alpha Everywhere next Sunday!

Think about it. Alpha Everywhere is really not about us trying to make it a success. Rather, it is a God-given opportunity for us to thrive and shine as His witnesses. So, we should ask ourselves:

How can Alpha help me come alive in evangelism? How can this help me be a better witness for Jesus?

In this kairos season, we want to follow the inspiring example of a lesser-known disciple by the name of Andrew who is sometimes called “The Bringer”. Largely overshadowed by his dynamic brother, Simon Peter, we know little about Andrew. But what we do know is highly significant. Andrew personally took the initiative to find his brother and invite him to come and see Jesus (John 1:35-42). It seemed like a very small act. Yet this ministry of The Bringer is big and very important in God's work.

In Singapore today, many are committed followers of Christ because:

- someone cared enough to be a true friend.
- someone introduced them to Jesus via a conversation.
- someone invited them to an Alpha Course.
- someone brought them to a church event or cell meeting.

Will you be an Andrew? Will you be a Bringer?

Thriving Together,
Pastor Hock Cheng

Scripture:

I beg you that when I come I may not have to be as bold as I expect to be toward some people who think that we live by the standards of this world. For though we live in the world, we do not wage war as the world does... - 2 Corinthians 10:2-5

Observation:

We do not live by the lowly standards that have been set by this world. We rise above these standards by the power of our Lord Jesus Christ. The world fights with guns, grenades and missiles. We fight with a spiritual arsenal that is far more advanced and superior than the nuclear weapons that Trump and Kim can possibly fire at each other in their lifetimes. We have been given the power to demolish strongholds – power that is way beyond the frontiers of post-modern science, engineering and worldly philosophy.

Application:

The devil constantly tries to sow lies in my mind to discourage me from carrying out the purposes of God. He tells me that I'm not good enough, not worthy enough to do God's work, and that God's grace is insufficient to live by. He magnifies my weaknesses so that I do not believe that I have the strength to face my challenges.

I need to remember that not only have my sins been put to death when I was crucified with Christ, but that I have been given special weapons after I rose with Him from the dead. So I can now demolish any thoughts that are depressive and untrue and not from God. Armed with this power that is based on God's truth and promises, I have the courage to face my enemies and have the ability be obedient to whatever God wants me to think and do.

Prayer:

Pray for God to remind us that through Christ, we have the power to overcome our fears, inadequacies and our difficulties. Pray that we will test our every thought and intention against God's word and discard what falls short of His standards.
