Your Punctuality Honours God

Next Sunday: Unwrapping Your Spiritual Gifts

Are you making the most of the spiritual gifts and talents God has given to you?

Many Christians are quite confused about this subject of spiritual gifts. Maybe you don't even know the spiritual gifts that God has given you.

What is a "spiritual gift"? God has a purpose for your life, and your spiritual gifts are the equipment He gives you to do what He asks you to do. God will never ask you to do something He doesn't give you the ability to do. It's given to you the moment you accept Christ. You don't get to choose your gift. You don't earn your gift.

It's also not for your benefit. Your spiritual gifts are given to you to help other people. And other people in the church family are given their gifts to help you. 1 Peter 4:10 (NLT) says, "God has given each of you a gift from his great variety of spiritual gifts. Use them well to serve one another."

If you want to discover your spiritual gifts, never start by saying, "Oh, I don't do this, and I don't do that." But start by allowing yourself to explore all possibilities. If any opportunity opens up for you to try your hand at serving, be open to experiment with it. You never know until you try. After you've tried it for a season, examine your feelings and evaluate the results. Then wait for God's confirmation.

Can you imagine what Shekinah would look like if everyone did this? What if the only thing missing in this church were spectators? Can you imagine the possibilities, and the impact we could be making in this community in Singapore and beyond?

With this in mind, I've invited my good friend, Dr Philip Huan, to address this subject next Sunday. When we develop and use our spiritual gifts, we all get blessed.

Thriving Together,
Pastor Hock Cheng

Unshakable Hope

Contributed by Cheow Sheng

Scripture:

We have this Hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure

- Hebrews 6:19a

Observation:

- God is saying to grab hold of this Hope (Anchor)
- Anchor – heavy, firm & strong
- Holds you down firmly and securely
- Anchor is use in storms to prevent drifting
 - to be still in one place

Application:

- I tend to worry about work, family and even the general things. There are times I grow weary fighting the storms in life.
- Work, in particular, can get overwhelming, at times. I need to constantly draw strength from God to cope with the heavy responsibilities.
- A small boat out at sea can be rather scary, and this verse serves as a reminder to myself that I can drop anchor when I need to be Still.
- God says, Do not worry. Be Still...

“When the oceans rise and thunders roar, I will soar with You
above the storm. Father, You are King over the flood,
I will be Still, know You are God.”

Prayer:

Dear God, thank you for giving us this unshakable Hope in You. Help us to brave the storms, knowing that You are always there with us. Give us the strength to press forward, each and everyday. When the waves of worries and strong winds are overwhelming, help us to remember to drop anchor. I will be still and know You are God.
